- 1) The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for allowance is that the cited prior art does not show: a method for manufacturing printing paper or paperboard, wherein a web formed in the wet section is pressed in a roll press nip and thereafter pressed in a shoe press nip, respectively, where said web is subjected at linear loads and specific pressures claimed, and where said web is dewatered to a dry-solids content at each of the stages claimed (claim 24); a paper machine for manufacturing printing paper or paperboard, said machine includes open press rolls having grooves of a volume per square meter of envelope surface, and grooves of a width claimed (claim 38).

- 2) Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Mark Halpern whose telephone number is 703-305-4522.
